

Heather Adzima grew up in Annapolis, Maryland where she trained, competed and taught at C&C Dance Company. Over the past summer Heather was on tour with the Solid Gold Dance Party as a featured dancer for Peaches and Herb, Anita Ward, France Joli, Maxine Nightingale, and the Village People. In May of 2004 she graduated from Marymount Manhattan College with a B.A. in Psychology. This will be Heather's 4th year teaching for the Children & Teen Program. Other credits include: featured dancer for Wish Bone's Fashion Show 2007, Neil Young's 2004 Greendale tour at Radio City Music Hall, Good Morning America, modeling for UDMA, touring with Mark Marino's Dance USA 2003, the 2002 Dancer's Responding to AIDS benefit, The 2002 BDC Best Of, numerous of BDC performance outlets, performing for Tracie Stanfield in the 2000 Elan awards, and assisted the Rockette Experience from 2001-2002.